BIOGRAPHY

CHARLES KELLY

As a musician, songwriter, film composer, record producer, and music director, Charles Kelly's musical talent developed early as he began taking piano lessons at the age of seven and trombone at eight. Later, he became a member of the All Philadelphia Boys Choir and various top local bands (such as Sundown, which produced Kevin and Robin Eubanks) in the Philadelphia area. In the 1970's Charles toured with Blue Magic and The Platters. In the 1980's, supported by his education at the Temple Univ. in Music Theory and Composition he had the opportunity to work with Stevie Wonder in Sigma Sound Studios. Upon moving to Los Angeles CA., he signed with Wondirection Records owned by Stevie Wonder.

During the 1980's he received gold records while working with many other artists such as Neil Diamond, Elton John, Sister Sledge, WHAM!, Thomas Dolby, Howard Jones, The Pointer Sisters, Holly Robinson, Ralph Johnson and Sheldon Reynolds (Earth, Wind and Fire), George Howard, Eddie Murphy, Ndugu Chancler, Nathan East, Ricky Larson, Debbie Allen, Nile Rogers, Lisa Fischer, Sammy Mac Kinney, Nate Watts (and other members of Wonderlove), The Sembello Brothers, and many others; he also was an actor on the TV series "Fame".

During the 1990's Charles' focus shifted to film and TV. He worked for The Walt Disney Company from 1993 to 1997. During this period, he also worked with writers from ABC Television creating music for children's stories. This prepared him to create scores for indie films in the 2000's. He later teamed up with film director Oliver Coltrass and scored music for the films "The Lie," "Whispered Illusions" and "Girl in the Mirror." He is currently working on CD, and film projects, while serving God as the Praise Band Director for Sunrise Church in Rialto, CA. Sunrise Church ministers to thousands of people weekly. Sunrise Worship Arts has hosted and opened for such artists as CeCe Winans, Selah, The Katinas, Salvador, Jeremy Camp, MaryMary, Tommy Walker, and Israel Houghton. It is the largest church in Rialto. Sunrise Church members (under the name of "Sounds of Sunrise") recently released a new CD titled "I Made It" which Charles produced. The CD consists of contributions from such talent as Maurice White and Sheldon Reynolds (Earth Wind and Fire), Paul Jackson Jr., Ken Reynolds (Integrity recording artist) and Nathan Watts (bassist for Stevie Wonder) and many others. The project was shipped November 30 2010.

SHERRI BRYANT

Dynamic and powerful are only two of the words that describe Sherri Bryant. She could also be described as a rare breed, high energy Christian recording artist who clearly expresses her love and passion for God through her music. In 2003, Sherri released her first album "I Found the One" which highlighted her ability to capture the melodies of heaven in her unique vocal arrangements and expressive lyrics. As a follow up to that successful debut, Sherri released her sophomore project "Made II Praise." This collection of contemporary praise and worship captures the passion and energy that flow from Sherri during a live performance. Sherri is currently in the studio perfecting melodies and vocals for her third project "True Worship." This piece will no doubt create quite a buzz in the music industry and brings a fresh release of God's presence to the world.

Multi gifted and multi-talented, Sherri's call to ministry spans past the walls of the local church. She is the founder and visionary of Effective Life Ministries, which carries out the mandate to "Usher in the presence of God, minister healing to the body of Christ to empower them to live an Effective Life for God's glory." Now, in full time ministry, Sherri receives invites to sing at churches, conferences and various events both nationally and internationally. Her many travels to South Africa, The Congo Africa, Ghana, Swazi Land, Zimbabwe, Malawi, and the UK attest to her global appeal. Sherri's most memorable journey to The Congo Africa placed her in front of Crowds that grew to 140,000 people who joyously sang along to her hit song "I'm Free"! As many creative miracles began to go forth, Sherri saw firsthand the magnitude of power that can be generated from a collective praise.

Sherri sings with an intensity that flows from her own testimony and is fueled by her passion for God. Her style, although edgy and contemporary, is still heart provoking. Sherri's sultry alto voice and magnetic stage presence is filled with personal conviction that not only entertains but also challenges the listener to be all they can be in Christ. She has blessed many because her own life is one that demonstrates what she sings about. Numerous lives across the globe have been changed because of the Jesus that lives in this woman of God. Although much has been accomplished, stay tuned — Sherri's story has just begun.

HUGO VARGAS

Hugo's musical background began at age 12 when he began playing the guitar. He is a self-taught musician. From age 12, to age 18 he was playing his guitar for worship at First Lutheran Church.

At age, 16 he began singing and started a Spanish pop/punk band called Nova Vega with some close friends and began creating original material. They had a few successes with the band. They played various house parties and local venues in the Inland Empire as well as the Whiskey A Go Go in Hollywood. They were televised several times in Fontana, which is their hometown. They were on a Spanish television show called "Tengo Talento," the Hispanic version of "Americas Got Talent," where they met various celebrities in the Spanish community. They were aired on live television nationwide several times with "Tengo Talento" and made it to the second to last episode of the season before being eliminated. Hugo continued with Nova Vega until the age of 21 when he decided to no longer pursue fame.

Hugo has since been playing for the worship ministry at Sunrise Church Rialto, which he had joined at age 19. His knowledge of music has since been expanding. He is a worship leader in the main worship services as well as a leader with the Young Adults Ministry, "The Refinery." Hugo also leads worship in all of the Sunrise Church campuses when a leader is needed.

Through Sunrise Church Hugo was asked to be a writer for "SoundsOfSunrise" where he experienced great opportunity along with new successes in music. Hugo is part of a team that recently put out an album called "I Believe" in which he contributed four original songs. Hugo's song "Runaway" has since opened up new experiences and opportunity.

SoundsOfSunrise shot a music video for the song that has received great feedback. The song was also submitted to the radio station 89.7 KSGN's "The Opening Act Contest" and won due to a combination of live voting and Judges Decision. As a result, he had the opportunity to perform "Runaway" at the sold out concert "Spirit West Coast." There Hugo shared the stage with big Christian music names like Mandisa, Rend Collective, Hillsong Young & Free, Matt Redman, Newsboys, and TobyMac.

RACHEL HILL

Over the course of the last 18 years, Rachel Hill has served and ministered with various praise and worship teams in several congregations and in a variety of different roles. During that time, she earned a Master's degree in Worship Leadership through the school of theology at Azusa Pacific University and began leading in her home congregation in that capacity. She has lead and co-lead congregations of people at conferences, retreats, women's events, concerts, and various other venues.

In 2012, Rachel joined a team of artists and musicians to develop an album project focused on educating and creating awareness for the victims of Human Trafficking. This was an Incredible opportunity that God gave to minister and educate; not only the team, but also the surrounding community. It has inspired work on future projects that the group, Sounds of Sunrise, will release together, and has opened up an opportunity for Rachel to lead a bible study group of women rescued from the horror of Human Trafficking. Outside the music realm, Rachel enjoys spending time with her husband and their two dogs, running, music and art.

DISCOGRAPHY

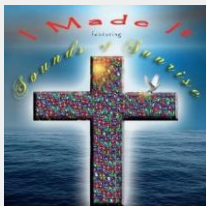

The "I Believe" project focuses on Human Trafficking awareness. Human Trafficking is a crime of such magnitude that it must be fought globally by each one of us. Please join us in this effort.

The "I Believe" project has a target audience of young people ages 12 thru 18. As the project began to unfold, we were struck by the ferocity with which human trafficking has spread rampantly throughout the U.S. with very real situations occurring "just down the street." Looking into, and learning more about this form of torture and abuse to young women and children has launched for us a new goal to aid in the stop of it. After covering the cost of production, the proceeds for "I Believe" will be donated to several organizations targeting the rescue and stopping of human trafficking. Another blessing from this project came from the talented musicians. Arguably, a Who's Who in the music world is featured such as bassists Andrew Gouche and Nate Watts, keyboardist Lance Lucas, drummer Stanley Randolph and legendary guitarist Sheldon Reynolds of Earth, Wind, and Fire fame.
